

Depths of ignorance

Arthur Dean 2021

Lodged in the rumpled tissue of a Viburnum tinus stigma, pollen grains from other snowball blossoms (gray) swell with moisture. One (at center) is already growing the tube that delivers sperm to the ovule. Other species' pollen (yellow and green) has landed amiss; genetic defenses exclude them from the fertilization race.

City officials dehumanize people by referring to "debris abatement and homeless abatement." Abatement refers to trash or noise, not people. They are human beings, not debris, and must not be eliminated, or scrubbed away.
